Several mailing services are available to fit your needs.

Priority Mail Express®

Letters, large or thick envelopes, tubes, and packages containing mailable items can be sent using Priority Mail Express. This money-back guaranteed service includes tracking and insurance up to $100. Additional merchandise insurance up to $5,000 may be purchased. Sunday, holiday, as well as early in the day delivery is available to many destinations for an additional fee. Select Priority Mail Express packaging is available at the Post Office. All Priority Mail Express packaging can be ordered online at www.usps.com/store.

Priority Mail®

Letters, large or thick envelopes, tubes, and packages containing mailable items can be sent using Priority Mail. This service is typically used to send documents, gifts, and merchandise. Select Priority Mail packaging is available at the Post Office. All Priority Mail packaging can be ordered at www.usps.com/store.

First-Class Mail®

Postcards, letters, large envelopes, and small packages can be sent using First-Class Mail. This service is typically used for personal and business correspondence and bills.

USPS Retail Ground

Small and large packages, thick envelopes, and tubes containing gifts and merchandise can be sent domestically using USPS Retail Ground.

Media Mail™

Small and large packages and thick envelopes can be sent domestically using Media Mail. Contents are limited to books, manuscripts, sound recordings, and certain other educational materials. Formerly called "Book Rate," Media Mail cannot contain advertising, except eligible books may contain incidental announcements of books.

Speed depends on distance. Mail takes longer to travel across the country than to travel across town.

Flat Rate Packaging is available in many convenient sizes for Priority Mail Express and Priority Mail, and can be used for domestic and international mailings. Flat Rate shipping lets you send your items for a low Flat Rate price. See the Flat Rate Quick Reference section for additional details, including international weight restrictions and options.

Most indemnity claims for

Insured, Registered Mail, or Priority Mail Express can be filed online or the form can be downloaded from www.usps.com and mailed along with evidence of value. For more information go to your local Post Office or visit www.usps.com.

Return Receipt provides a postcard or electronic notification with the date of delivery and recipient signature.

Restricted Delivery confirms that only a specified person, or authorized agent, will receive a piece of mail. This service is available only if you also purchase Certified Mail, Insured Mail (over $500), COD, Adult Signature, Signature Confirmation, or Registered Mail.

Many of these extra services are available for international mail.

Prices and fees can be found in the Notice 123 Price List on Postal Explorer at pe.usps.com.

Examples of Smart Choices

These examples show how mailing services can be combined to meet your needs.

Example 1: Sending a Valuable Item

Jane's niece is getting married next month, and Jane wants to send a piece of heirloom jewelry to the bride. The jewelry has a lot of sentimental value, so Jane wants to be sure that it will arrive safely. Jane identifies three possible options:

$$$

Option A Priority Mail Express

Priority Mail Express automatically includes insurance up to $100 and guarantees delivery to Jane's niece in 1 to 2 days. Additional insurance may be purchased. Jane will also receive a mailing receipt and confirmation that the package has been delivered and, if requested, has been signed for by her niece.

Option B First-Class Mail Parcel with Registered Mail

First-Class Mail offers delivery at a low cost and can be combined with Registered Mail, a service that provides the highest level of mail security during transit. Insurance can be purchased for items up to $50,000 in material, but not sentimental value.

Option C First-Class Mail Parcel with Insurance

First-Class Mail offers delivery at a low cost and can be combined with insurance for up to $5,000. Insured mail will cover the jewelry's material value should the piece get lost or damaged, but it cannot cover its sentimental value.

Jane's Decision

Jane decides that speed is less of a priority than security. Jane chooses First-Class Mail and, because the jewelry has greater sentimental than monetary value, she decides to add Registered Mail service so she can feel confident that her heirloom will be as secure as possible during transit.

Example 2: Sending an Important Document

Maria recently sold her car and needs to transfer the title to the new owner. Maria wants to be certain that the new owner gets the title to complete the sale. Maria considers these options:

Priority Mail Express will arrive at many locations the day after it is mailed. Priority Mail Express also provides Maria with proof that she mailed the title, the ability to track it online or by phone, and notification that it was delivered. Maria can also request a copy of the recipient's signature.

Option B Priority Mail with Signature Confirmation Service

Priority Mail will get the title to its destination in 1-3 days. Priority Mail with tracking lets her obtain delivery information online or by phone. If Maria uses Signature Confirmation she gets the same delivery information, plus she can request a copy of the recipient's signature.

Option C First-Class Mail with Certified Mail and Return Receipt

First-Class Mail will get the title to its destination in 1 to 3 days. Certified Mail with Return Receipt will give Maria proof that she mailed the title and will return a card to her with the date the title was delivered and the signature of the person who received it.

Maria's Decision

Maria wants a copy of the signature returned to her to prove that the title was delivered, and she wants to get the lowest price she can. Maria decides that First-Class Mail with Certified Mail and Return Receipt is the best option.

Addressing Your Mail

The accuracy of the address affects the speed and handling of your mail.

Return Address

Print or type your address in the upper left corner on the front of the envelope.

Extra Services

Place labels for extra services above the delivery address and to the right of the return address, or to the left of the postage.

Postage

Use stamps, a postage meter, or a PC Postage system to affix the correct amount. You can calculate postage online at pe.usps.com.

Recipient Name

Name of Organization

Street Address

Use a Post Office box or street address, but not both. If the address also has a directional (for instance, NW for Northwest), be sure to use it. There may be more than one Main Street.

Apartment or Suite Number

The correct apartment or suite number helps to ensure delivery to the right location.

City, State, and ZIP Code

To find the correct spelling of a city name or to find a ZIP Code, visit www.usps.com or call 1-800-ASK-USPS. Using the correct ZIP Code helps to direct your mail more efficiently and accurately.

Abbreviations

Envelopes

Letters, bills, greeting cards, and other documents can be sent in standard white, manila, or recycled paper envelopes. Items needing extra protection can be sent in bubble-lined, padded paper, or waterproof envelopes. These envelopes, along with stationery and prepaid First-Class Mail postcards and envelopes, can be purchased at the Post Office.

Priority Mail Express and Priority Mail envelopes are available at your Post Office or visit www.usps.com/store. You must use the USPS-produced address label for Priority Mail Express.

Online Shipping Labels

You can print and pay for your Priority Mail Express and Priority Mail postage labels online using Click-N-Ship. USPS Tracking is provided free for domestic Priority Mail. International labels with postage may be purchased online for Global Express Guaranteed, Priority Mail Express International, Priority Mail International, and First-Class Package International Service using Click-N-Ship. You can arrange for free Package Pickup online. Learn more about Click-N-Ship at www.usps.com/cns.

Addressing

Placement

Print the delivery and return addresses on the same side of your envelope or card. The addresses should be written parallel to the longest side.

Legible

Type or print clearly with a pen or permanent marker so the address is legible from an arm's length away. Do not use commas or periods.

Return Address

A return address is required on most mail.

Priority Mail Express®

For Priority Mail Express, you must use a USPS-produced address label provided by the Post Office.

Military Mail

Military addresses must show the full name with middle name or initial and the PSC number, unit number, or ship name. Replace the city name with APO, FPO or DPO, and the state with AA, AE, or AP, and include the ZIP + 4 Code.

Preparing Packages

Careful preparation of your package helps to ensure safe delivery.

The Box

Choose a box with enough room for cushioning material around the contents. Sturdy paperboard or corrugated fiberboard boxes are best for weights up to 10 pounds. If you are reusing a box, totally remove or obliterate all previous labels and markings with heavy black marker.

Where to Find Boxes

You can purchase boxes and tubes of various sizes at most Post Offices. Select Priority Mail Express and Priority Mail boxes are available free at the Post Office for items sent using either of these services. While you are not required to use the free packaging for these services, you must use the USPS-produced address label provided by the Post Office for Priority Mail Express. To order Priority Mail Express or Priority Mail boxes at no extra charge, call 1-800-222-1811 or visit www.usps.com/store.

Cushioning

Place the cushioning all around your item or items. You can use newspaper, “foam peanuts,” or shredded paper. Close and shake the box to see if you have enough cushioning. If you hear items shifting, add more cushioning.

Placing an extra address label with the delivery and return addresses inside the package will ensure that the item can be delivered in case the outside label becomes damaged or falls off.

Mailing Fragile Items

Use foamed plastic or padding to protect your items, placing the cushioning inside hollow items as well. Mark the package “Fragile” or mark “Perishable” on packages that contain food or other items that can spoil. Careful packaging is the best way to safeguard your valuable items against damage.

Mailing Heavy Items

If you are mailing a very heavy or very dense item, start with a sturdy box, pack the contents securely with a strong material for bracing to prevent shifting, and tape all the edges with reinforced tape. Packages heavier than 70 pounds cannot be mailed.

Sealing

Tape the opening of your box and reinforce all seams with 2-inch-wide tape. Use clear or brown packaging tape, reinforced packing tape, or paper tape. Do not use cord, string, twine, masking or cellophane tape.

Place a strip of clear packaging tape over your label to prevent the address from smearing.

Return Address

Print or type your address in the upper left corner on the same side of the package as the delivery address.

Extra Services

Place labels for extra services above the delivery address and to the right of the return address, or to the left of the delivery address.

Postage

Use stamps, a postage meter, or a PC Postage system to affix the correct amount. You can calculate and purchase postage online at www.usps.com.

Delivery Address

Print or type the delivery address parallel to the longest side of the package. Type or print clearly with a pen or permanent marker so that your address is legible from an arm's length away. Do not use commas or periods.

Confirmation Services

Labels for USPS Tracking or Signature Confirmation are placed to the left of or above the address label.

City, State, and ZIP Code

To find the correct spelling of a city name and state abbreviation or to find a ZIP Code, visit www.usps.com or call 1-800-ASK-USPS. Using the correct ZIP Code helps direct your mail more efficiently and accurately.

Drop Off

If your mail item weighs 13 ounces or less, and you have affixed correct postage, you can drop it into a blue collection box. If your item weighs more than 13 ounces, and you have affixed postage stamps, you must take it to an employee at the retail counter of a Post Office.

Tips and Tools for Measuring

Use these rulers and guide boxes to measure letters and large envelopes.

Once a piece of mail exceeds the maximum length, height, or thickness of one shape, it automatically gets classified as the next largest shape.

maximum size for Letters
11-1/2" long x 6-1/8" high
Large Envelopes exceed one of the letter size maximum dimensions.

Unusual Shapes and Sizes

Sometimes a piece of mail requires additional postage because it is a certain shape or size that is difficult to process on mail sorting machines. To make sure you're paying the correct postage, visit pe.usps.com. These are examples of mail that could require additional postage:

• Square envelopes

• Envelopes on which the address is written parallel to the shorter edge

Sending and Receiving Mail

Here are some useful mailing hints for senders and recipients.

Sending Mail

You can send mail by:

- Dropping it into a blue collection box
- Leaving it in your home mailbox
- Scheduling a pickup
- Taking it to a Post Office

If your item weighs more than 13 ounces, and you have affixed postage stamps, you must take it to an employee at the retail counter of a Post Office.

Scheduling a Pickup

Whether it's Package Pickup or time-specific Pickup On Demand, USPS pickup options make shipping your packages quick and convenient.

Package Pickup is the easy, convenient way to send qualifying packages. Just submit your request online at www.usps.com/pickup and have your items ready before your carrier arrives. It's that simple!

Pickup On Demand allows you to schedule time-specific pickups within a 2-hour time frame. A letter carrier will make a special trip to your home or business for a fee to pick up qualifying packages that have postage affixed. There is no additional charge for picking up multiple pieces of mail. Visit www.usps.com/pickup or call 1-800-222-1811 for additional information including qualifying packages or to schedule a pickup.

Holding Mail

If you plan to be out of town on business or vacation, you may want to temporarily stop delivery of your mail. To have the Postal Service hold your mail up to 30 days, visit www.usps.com, call 1-800-ASK-USPS, or fill out a "Hold Mail" form at the Post Office. When you return, you can either pick up your mail from the Post Office or have it delivered to your home.

Change of Address and Mail Forwarding

Before you move, get a copy of the Mover's Guide from your Post Office and return the completed form to your letter carrier or your Post Office. You can also save a trip to the Post Office by visiting www.usps.com to change your address online for a small fee. Fast and easy—takes less than five minutes.

Notify your Post Office at least one month before you move to ensure uninterrupted mail service. Priority Mail Express, Priority Mail, and First-Class Mail will be forwarded at no charge for one year. Magazines and newspapers will be forwarded for 60 days.

Premium Forwarding Service

Going away for a while? Have all your mail sent to you at your temporary location.

Premium Forwarding Service is a domestic service that forwards ALL of your mail from your permanent address to a temporary address.

Your mail will be forwarded to you on a weekly basis for a minimum of two weeks up to one year. You do not miss important mail while you are away—all your mail reaches you. One flat fee for each weekly Priority Mail shipment plus an application fee.

If you are a snowbird, college student, executive, individual with an extended family care situation, or away on extended vacation, all are possible candidates for Premium Forwarding Service.

Never again miss a mail delivery when you're away from home. It is easy to enroll in Premium Forwarding Service. Visit www.usps.com or your local Post Office to enroll.

Printing Postage

There is no need to go to the Post Office. You can print postage online at usps.com.

Signing for Mail

Some pieces of mail require a signature from the recipient at the time of delivery. This includes items sent with Priority Mail Express (if selected), Certified Mail, Collect on Delivery, Insured Mail (over $500), Registered Mail, Return Receipt, Signature Confirmation, and Adult Signature.

Recipient Responsibilities

When you sign for a piece of mail, you acknowledge delivery. The Postal Service's liability ends when you sign for the mail. You may ask the letter carrier for the sender's name and address before you accept the mail. You may not open the mail, but you may look at it as long as the letter carrier is holding it before you choose to sign for it.

Delivery If Recipient Is Not Home

If no one is home when the letter carrier attempts delivery, the letter carrier will leave a notice and return the item to the Post Office. Check the notice for specific instructions or call 1-800-ASK-USPS to have the mail redelivered.

If the sender has not asked for Restricted Delivery or Adult Signature (21 years of age or older), the carrier may deliver the mail to anyone who receives mail at that address.

Confirming Delivery

Visit www.usps.com or call 1-800-222-1811 to get delivery information on Priority Mail Express and mail with confirmation services. You will need the item number from your mailing receipt or label.

Restricting Delivery

Restricted Delivery service ensures that only a specified person (or the person's authorized agent) will receive a piece of mail. Restricted Delivery is available only if you also purchase Certified Mail, Insured Mail (for more than $500 coverage), Registered Mail, COD, Signature Confirmation, or Adult Signature.

Filing a Claim

You can file a claim for compensation for loss or damage of Insured Mail, Registered Mail, and Priority Mail Express. A claim form can be filed online or the form can be downloaded from www.usps.com and mailed along with evidence of value. Visit www.usps.com or contact your local Post Office for additional information on how to file a claim.

Perishable Items

Some items require special packaging or special permission to be mailed. Call 1-800-ASK-USPS or visit your Post Office to find out how to mail these items:

- Live animals
- Fresh fruits and vegetables
- Plants

Keep the Mail Safe: Hazardous and Restricted Materials

Some things cannot be mailed or can be mailed only in small quantities for safety and legal reasons. Some items have restrictions on how they can be mailed, including:

- Aerosol cans
- Firearms
- Flammable materials
- Liquids and powders
- Lithium batteries
- Lottery tickets
- Perfume
- Poisons
- Tobacco and tobacco products

Some items, however, are not permitted in the mail, including:

- Alcoholic beverages
- Ammunition
- Drug paraphernalia
- Fireworks and other explosives

Call 1-800-ASK-USPS or visit your Post Office if you have questions about the item you want to mail.

Other Products and Services

For more information about these services, visit www.usps.com, call 1-800-ASK-USPS, or stop by your Post Office.

International Mail

You can mail postcards, letters, large envelopes, and packages from the United States to other countries. As with domestic mail, you can choose the best service based on speed, cost, and extra services. Customs declaration forms are required on most international packages. All Customs forms must be electronically generated. If you are not able to do this, take your handwritten Customs form to any Post Office and the retail clerk will be happy to submit the electronic information for you. To learn more about options for international mail and to calculate postage, visit www.usps.com/international or call 1-800-ASK-USPS. Your Post Office can also help you send mail internationally.

Military Mail

The Postal Service can deliver your letters and packages to more than 500 military Post Offices worldwide. Many services available for domestic mail are also available for military mail. There may be restrictions on the size, weight, or content of your mail. Visit the Domestic Price Calculator at pe.usps.com.

Money Orders

Money orders are a safe alternative to sending cash through the mail. A lost or stolen money order can be replaced. You can buy domestic money orders at all Post Offices in amounts up to $1,000 each. International money orders to certain countries can be purchased in amounts up to $700 each.

Passports

Some Post Offices offer passport application and renewal services. For more information about passport application forms and locations, call 1-800-ASK-USPS or visit <http://travel.state.gov>.

Paying for Merchandise

For a small fee, you can send merchandise COD (Collect on Delivery) to domestic destinations and have the Postal Service collect payment from the recipient and send it to you.

PC Postage™

Enjoy the convenience of printing postage directly from your home or office using PC Postage products. Postal Service-approved providers offer hardware and software products that allow you to purchase and print postage using a computer and the internet. Learn more at www.usps.com/business/online-postage.htm

Post Office™ Boxes

A Post Office box is a great way to receive mail where and when it's most convenient for you. P.O. Box service is provided in 3-, 6-, or 12-month prepaid periods. You can rent a P.O. box online at www.usps.com or at most Post Offices. Prices vary depending on the location of the Post Office and the P.O. box size.

Stamp Collecting

If you are interested in stamp collecting or the USA Philatelic catalogue, visit www.usps.com or call 1-800-STAMP24. Stamp products make great gifts.

Tips for Frequent Mailers and Small Businesses

Postage Solutions

Postage meters and PC Postage products offer the convenience of postage when you need it from your home or office. Many PC Postage products include valuable features, such as software accounting of mailing expenses and integrated scales for exact postage calculations. Learn more at www.usps.com/business/online-postage.htm.

Commercial Prices

If you have large volumes of mail and are willing to invest some time learning more about preparing and sorting mail, you might qualify for lower postage prices. To qualify for these prices, you must mail at least 200 newsletters, flyers, or ads or 500 or more postcards, letters, or invoices at a time. To learn more about whether commercial mail is right for your small business or organization, access Business Mail 101 at pe.usps.com. To learn more about commercial prices for Priority Mail Express, Priority Mail, and International Mail, visit www.usps.com.

Pickup On Demand®

For a fee, the Post Office will pick up your postage-paid qualifying packages from your home, small business or organization within a scheduled 2-hour time frame. There is no additional charge for picking up multiple pieces of mail. Correct postage must be affixed to each piece prior to pickup. Call 1-800-222-1811 or visit www.usps.com/pickup for additional information including qualifying packages or to schedule a pickup.

Package Pickup™

Package Pickup is the easy, convenient way to send qualifying packages. Just submit your request online at www.usps.com/pickup and your letter carrier will pick up the packages during their normal delivery time. This service is free of charge, regardless of the number of packages you are sending. Whether it is a one-time event or multiple shipments, you can plan your pickup schedule up to three months in the future. Visit www.usps.com/pickup for additional information or to schedule a pickup now.

Free Supplies

If you mail a lot of Priority Mail Express or Priority Mail items, you can save trips to the Post Office by ordering packaging supplies, including envelopes and boxes, online at www.usps.com/store or by calling 1-800-222-1811.
